

Questions:

1. Midway College's mission statement focuses on "empowering students to lead." How did your participation in this leadership activity "empower you" as a leader?
2. List two leadership characteristics/traits you learned about in the seminar you attended. Discuss how you can apply these traits to your chosen profession.
3. Giving back to your company/community/college is an important servant leadership characteristic. How did your activity provide you with ideas, motivational techniques or service opportunities to help you become a servant leader?