Dear Friends,

Midway College has a special energy and creative spirit. We are eager and innovative as we strive for excellence in all we do. We are ready with new ideas, building plans, and different approaches to education. Our students and faculty are not merely studying and absorbing the world around us, they are creating it. In our annual report, we offer a snapshot of a college on the rise, a place that is not only growing—enrollment has doubled over the past five years—but is improving by all measures. We are not only attracting more students, we are attracting more diverse students and better-prepared communicators and leaders.

We have made solid decisions that have positioned the institution well, and we are standing strong as we build the Midway College of tomorrow with a new classroom building to replace Starks Hall this year. With lead gifts for this new classroom building from Ashland Inc. and the Bowling Family Foundation, we were also able to secure significant funding from the James Graham Brown Foundation. The Alumni are also contributing at twice the rate of support as our last capital campaign. With $3.3 million pledged for the $5 million project we thank each donor for being a part of this capital campaign.

Additionally, we were able to excel in remarkable ways:

- Graduated record-setting class of over 350 men and women;
- Celebrated our first MBA graduates;
- Developed strategic plans to double our nursing enrollment;
- Reached $6.2 million as part of a $13.75 million endowment campaign;
- Achieved 100% giving by the trustees, faculty and staff, and;
- Ranked 13th out of 32 Kentucky Higher Education Institutes in baccalaureate degrees granted in Kentucky.

It is my honor to recognize you in this 2010 annual report calendar. As a donor, thank you for celebrating excellence and placing value on higher education. Let us use our pride derived from excellence to elevate Midway College and in doing so build capacity so we may better serve even more students and alumni during the next decade.

Sincerely,
