College Weekly Prayer Time

All students, faculty and staff are invited to join in a weekly prayer time together. This time will include sharing of corporate concerns and prayers, and may include moments of silence and reflection, as well as a reading of scripture or singing a hymn / song. This time is structured to be brief because of class and work schedules. Please join in this community prayer time here on Midway College's campus.

Wednesday at 12:00 Noon
Duthie Auditorium, AHR Center

ACT RESIDUAL

Midway College offers an ACT residual for those students who are needing a 21 for their academic program.

The Next ACT Residual is July, 28, 2012

Contact Phyllis A. Puckett, papuckett@midway.edu or 846-5332 for a registration form. Forms are also located outside of the office in Marrs Hall, main floor across from the water fountain.

Body Mysteries Solved!

Why can't I stop biting my nails?

Casual nibbling may have evolved as a type of self grooming, like when an animal bites or scrapes down its claws. It may also be a soothing ritual for when you are stressed, similar to sucking your thumb. But some people take this ritual too far, gnawing away until their nail beds are painful or bleeding. If you are over chomping, seek the help of a doctor or a cognitive behavioral therapist to help you break the habit.

Campus Web is Changing!

Midway College is currently transitioning to a new CampusWeb system.

Currently, data for any classes prior to this upcoming fall (Fall 2012) will be available on the original system that you are used to.

Although some data will be loaded in the new system, data for Spring and Summer Classes will not be complete in the new CampusWeb until the grades are finals for each term

THE NEW CAMPUS WEB IS AVAILABLE
APRIL 16 FOR CURRENT STUDENTS AND
APRIL 23 FOR NEW STUDENTS

If you have any questions, please email help@midway.edu or contact Student Affairs

NOTICE OF NON-DISCRIMINATION

Midway College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national or ethnic origin, marital status, age, or disability in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other College-administered programs or in its employment practices. In conformity with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. § 1681 and its implementing regulation at C.F.R. Part 106, it is also the policy of Midway College not to discriminate on the basis of sex in its educational programs, activities or employment practices. The admission of women only in the Traditional Day Programs is in conformity with a provision of the Act. For additional information, contact the College's Title IX Coordinator:
