

MIDWAY IN ITALY

WITH DR. ANGELA TUMINI

Since 1999, the Umbra Institute has been hosting students and professors in Perugia, Italy; encouraging academic pursuits that promote intercultural exploration, interdisciplinary understanding, professional development, and personal growth.

Perugia is a smaller city that hosts a vast array of academic institutions, from the University of Perugia and University for Foreigners, to the LaMaggiore Music School and Academy of Fine Arts. Often called “Italy’s university city” and strategically located half-way between Florence and Rome in the rolling hills of Umbria, Perugia makes the ideal location for a safe and rewarding study abroad experience.

While the Institute offers semester, summer, and year-long programming, we invite you to be on the lookout for more information from Dr. Angela Tumini as she prepares to teach a Midway course in Perugia in 2019, from May 24 through June 29.

MIDWAY IN ITALY FAQ

DO I NEED TO KNOW ITALIAN?

No, you do not. Most students come to Perugia with no background in Italian. Courses at the Umbra Institute are offered in English, unless you are specifically interested in enrolling in Italian language courses.

WHAT STUDENT SERVICES ARE AVAILABLE?

Umbra staff meets students upon arrival to the FCO airport in Rome and offers a comprehensive academic and safety orientation, including a walking tour of the city. Various workshops and cultural activities are arranged throughout the semester and day-trip travel guides are available. Umbra also has a smartphone app that provides not only course, local discount, and activity information, but also emergency and medical contacts, as well as an immediate notification system designed to reach travelers in any location. Students also have access to Umbra's 24/7 emergency phone, student lounge with a television hosting American channels, the library, and printer.

WHAT IS INCLUDED IN TUITION?

Tuition covers: the academic program, housing, airport transfers (FCO-PG-FCO), Resident Director, orientation, institute & university facilities, some Umbra-sponsored cultural activities, transcript, student services & 24-hour assistance.

Tuition does not cover: airfare, personal travel, food, or course fees.

IS WIFI EASILY ACCESSIBLE IN ITALY?

The Umbra Institute and all student apartments are fully equipped with WiFi. Students often study in local coffee, gelato, or sweet shops where WiFi is also available.

WHAT WILL MY APARTMENT BE LIKE?

All student apartments are located within a short walking distance of the Umbra Institute. They are within Perugia's historic city center, offering quick access to cafes, restaurants, grocery stores, cinemas, shopping centers, the post office, and more. Apartments are fully-furnished and each apartment has a fully-equipped kitchen that students may use to cook affordable meals. Students will be asked to bring their own towel, but sheets, pillows, fans and other household items will be provided by the Institute's dedicated housing staff.
